

The girls are talking about the associate of Rio who got picked up, he could tell about the relationship between them and Rio, therefore they think about hiring someone to kill him but they feel that there is no way back after doing that. Ruby says 'It's different to rob a bank and do money launder from being involve in a murder'.

One day, the girls meet Rio because they decided to tell him who is the ally that the police has been captured, but before telling him Rio offers a new job to the girls. They have to drive 3 trucks from one point to another, looks like an easy work but they think that maybe when they get into the truck the police will appear and arrest them. However, they do it and start to drive. In the middle of the travel an officer makes Beth stop, before stopping she tells the girls if they could look after her kids when she has to go to the prison, she believes is her end because there must be something illegal inside. Despite of that, she ends up safe. instead of being something shady in it, the truck is empty. When Beth arrives at her destination, Rio is waiting for her. She complains about what happened to her and asks why the truck was empty. He responds saying that he wanted to see if the police is looking him. After that he fires the girls saying that he doesn't need they help anymore.

Annie feels very bad because she can't be with Sadie, she has to be with Greg so Beth decides to invite her to stay at her home until she feels better but Dean doesn't agree with the decision that Beth does and gets mad.

The following day when Annie is working, Mary comes to the supermarket and blackmails her again. Boomer sees what happens and he wants to know what is going on. He goes to the church where Mary goes and starts to flirt with her. He achieves being in her house and putting a bible with a microphone inside. He'll spy her conversations.

While Boomer is doing that, Ruby and Stan are on the bed and Ruby offers to smoke a cigarette of marihuana. She does this because she knows that when Stan is high, he is more talkative and she wants to asks him if the flipped boy has talked. In fact, she wants to know if she is in danger. They smoke but before Stan tells her, he gets a call saying that there is a kidney for her child.
